Copy of: Appeal From Determination of Supervisors. In the matter of the (so-called) Bidwell Tillman Highway. Towns of Ridgeville and Hilton.

To: Honorable C. H. Sprecher,
County Judge of County of Monroe.

I, Ben Brieske, considering myself aggrieved by the order, laying out a highway over my farm in the Township of Ridgeville, do hereby appeal therefrom, and apply to you for appointment of commissioners to review such order.

The highway in question is described as follows, to-wit:

"A highway of the width of three rods the center line of which commences at a point in the center of the town highway extending in an easterly and westerly direction along the south line of the S.E¼ of the N.W¼ of Sec. 36 in the Town of Ridgeville, which said point is 13 rods west of the S.E. corner of said forty, running thence in a southeasterly direction in a contour curve across the N.W¼ of the S.E¼ and the N.E¼ of the S.W¼ of said Section 36, a distance of approximately 109 rods to a point 35 rods North of the S.E. corner of the N.W¼ of the S.E¼ of said section, thence in a general Northeasterly direction on a curve until it intersects the center of the present road of Oscar Mack in the N.E¼ of the S.E¼ of Sec. 36, thence in a direction Northeasterly on and along said private road to the east line of said last mentioned forty at a point 24½ rods North of the S.E. corner thereof."

which said order was dated April 20, 1946, and filed in the Office of the Town Clerks of Ridgeville and Hilton on the 6th day of May, 1946:

The grounds upon which said appeal is made is as follows:

1. The petition does not meet the requirements of Sec. 80.14 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

2. A legal highway exists which was discontinued by order of the Supervisors on the 20th day of April, 1946: that said supervisors were without jurisdiction to discontinue said highway.

This appeal is brought to reverse entirely the order of said Town Boards.

Dated this 31st day of May, 1946.
